

Sequence of the end of health measures

End of public health measures	Measures regarding education BY JUNE 30, 2022	Operational measures BY DECEMBER 31, 2022
Since March 7, 2022 End of the mask mandate in classrooms when students are seated	Possibility of continuing distance education services	Possibility of taking necessary measures to allow testing For example, authorizing nurses, respiratory therapists, midwives, first responders to administer, even without a prescription, a COVID-19 test
Since March 12, 2022 End of the use of vaccine passports	End of the use of retired teachers to provide education in preschools, elementary schools and secondary schools	Possibility of taking necessary measures to allow vaccination For example, authorizing certain professionals and students to administer flu or COVID-19 vaccines.
By mid-April 2022 End of the mask mandate in enclosed or partially enclosed public places, except in public transit		Possibility of continuing telemedicine
At the earliest in May 2022 End of the mask mandate in public transit		Possibility of continuing to employ the resources hired through the Je Contribue platform
		Possibility for the minister to order that all the pandemic-related information or documents required to protect the public's health be provided to the ministry
		Possibility of extending the contracts entered into and in force to ensure testing and vaccination activities, as well as equipment storage and transportation (5 years after the end of the public health emergency)
		Power to levy fines ranging from $1,000 to $6,000 in the event of non-compliance

To maintain certain essential operational measures pertaining to prevention, testing and vaccination in order to continue protecting the public's health in the current context.